AMENDMENT

The following correction may be noted in the draft amendments proposed to the Rules of the Exchange published in the Gazette of India (No. 27), Part IV dated July 3—July 9, 2010 :—

The draft amendments covered under Sr. No. 8 (published in page 460) be read as amendment proposed to Byelaw 30 of Chapter XII of the Byelaws of the Exchange instead of amendment proposed to Rule 30 of Chapter IV of the Rules of the Exchange. After the correction, the draft amendment under Sr. No. 8 will read as under :—

Quote

The word 'sixty' which appear in between "At any point of time, not less than" and "percent of the members of the Defaulters' Committee shall be from among non-trading members" in Byelaw 30 of Chapter XII is proposed to be substituted with the word 'eighty'.

The existing Byelaw (3) of Chapter XI of the Byelaws of the Exchange is proposed to be substituted with the following new Byelaw (3), subject to the approval of SEBI :—

Quote

All claims, differences or disputes referred to in Byelaws (1), (1A), (1B) and (1D) shall be submitted to arbitration within six months from the date on which the claim, difference or dispute arose or shall be deemed to have arisen. The time taken in conciliation proceedings, if any, initiated and conducted as per the provisions of the Act and the time taken by the Relevant Authority to administratively resolve the claim, differences or disputes shall be excluded for the purpose of determining the period of six months, subject to sufficient documentary proof.

The limitation period of six months shall be computed from the end of the quarter during which the disputed transaction(s) were executed. In case the arbitration application is not filed within the limitation period for reasons beyond the control of the party, the limitation period can be extended in certain cases for further period of three months by the Arbitral Tribunal.
